FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PERFORMERS LINED UP FOR TOWN OF BRISTOL SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

BRISTOL, NH — The performers are all lined up and set to go for the new Town of Bristol Summer Concert Series to be held on Thursday nights in Kelley Park from 6:30 – 8:00 pm. The Bristol Outdoor Summer Concert Series will begin on July 10th with a local favorite leading the way as the Uncle Steve Band will be the first to perform for the series. The concerts will continue every Thursday night until August 21st, with the final concert leading into a big finish to the summer with a full weekend of Old Home Day events.

The slate of performers for the series is as follows:

July 10th – Uncle Steve Band
July 17th – Van Transit Jazz Band
July 24th – Lisa Young & Co.
July 31st – Ellen Carson with Family & Friends
August 7th – The Cable Guys
August 14th – Lisa Young & Co.
August 21st – Monadnock Bluegrass Band

The Concerts are free and open to the public and the music scheduled is good entertainment for young and old alike. Everyone is encouraged to bring a blanket or chair and enjoy the company of your friends and neighbors while listening to the sounds of some fantastic local musicians. Concerts will be held RAIN OR SHINE, and in case of inclement weather, the concerts will move indoors to the Tapply-Thompson Community Center right across the street.

More information about concerts and Old Home Day can be found on the Town of Bristol web site at www.townofbristolnh.org or by contacting Claire Moorhead, Community/Economic Development Coordinator at bristolevents@townofbristolnh.org or 744-3354.
